

Creative Writing

With summer around the corner, try to think of your best summer memory. In the space below write a brief paragraph about your favorite summer memory. Tell us where you were and what you did. Be descriptive by using all five senses to help tell your story (sight, smell, taste, touch, sound).

